To the Class of 2006--

As you continue your life's journey, your high school experience will begin to separate by days and months and eventually into years. When you think back, it will be the people you shared your time with that will come to mind. Take these thoughts, acknowledge your need for a re-connection and act. Have a conversation, talk, reflect. These friendships are everlasting and will keep a small part of you forever young.

On behalf of the faculty and staff of SHS, thank you for spending time with us. Please come back with your news.

Dedication

Each year Sutherland Street is dedicated to a staff member who shows excellence in teaching, warmth of personality, and dedication to the school community. In recognition of these qualities, the class of 2006 proudly selects Mr. Tony O'Heron of the Science Department to receive this year's dedication.

Mr. O'Heron

Mr. O'Heron has been teaching science for 16 years. After graduating from Bishop Kearney High School and SUNY Binghamton, Mr. O'Heron began his teaching career at Eastridge High School before coming to Pittsford. His wife, Nancy, is a teacher in the city of Rochester, and they have 3 children: Nicole, Jim, and Matthew. When Mr. O'Heron isn't solving equations, amusing students, or improving their minds, you can probably find him on the golf course.

Here are some reflections from his students...

"Always energetic and outgoing in the classroom."

"Titrations driving you NUTS? No Problem! Mr. O'Heron is an accessible teacher who strives to help students."

"He is hysterical, brilliant, and an amazing teacher."

"Mr. O'Heron provides the ultimate teaching experience."

"I never thought I'd get such a kick out of chemistry."

"He teaches more than just chemistry--he also teaches life lessons."

"His sense of humor is unique and everyone in his class has a good time."

"The intangibles he teaches with add so much to his great class."

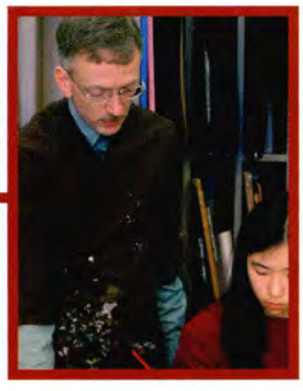
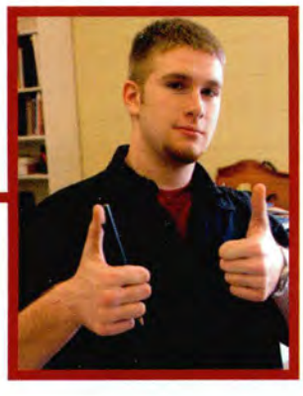
Strokes

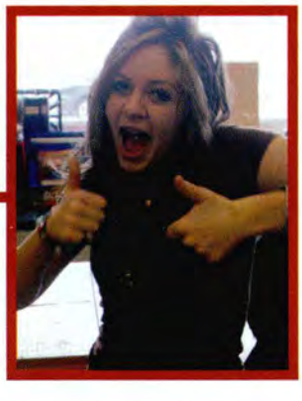


"All through high school it was a goal of mine to teach art. I took a lot of art classes in high school. Now I take more photos for myself than before."
-Mr. Elling

"Art is awesome because it's so open-ended. You can take an assignment you've been given and really make it your own."
-Brad Bambara



"Pain is temporary, art is forever."
-Jake Gross



"I love it. It's a chill iPod party."
-Chloe Smith

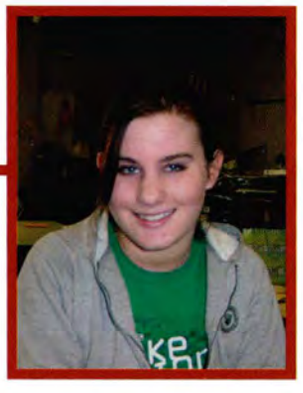
"You are this school's art varsity team and I'm your coach and together we must beat Webster Schroeder!"
-Mr. Brown speaking to his AP art class

Stan Monu perfects his pastels.

Business

"Business class is tight; if you got Mista Page e'erthing be a'ight."
-Ngwese Ebangwese

"I love accounting."
-Charlie Levin



"Business is fun. Take it!"
-Anne Gunther

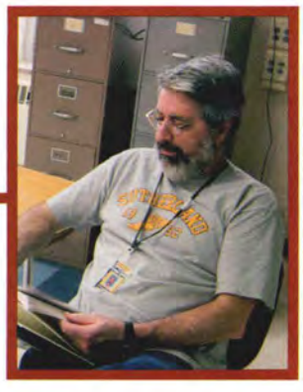
"Leadership is the key to success!"
-Alex Ognenovski

"This is how I roll."
-Mr. Page

"Character is doing the right thing when nobody is watching."
-Mrs. Winghart

Suits

Words



"I like to see myself as nurturing, as a real sweetheart."
-Mr. Steele teaching his students about irony

"There was ne'er a class more fair than English."
-Diana Gaston

"I like creative writing. I champion it. I cherish it. I treasure it. I like Mr. Shafer and alliteration."
-Zack Taschman

"Is reading a book really as bad as corporal punishment?"
-Mr. Northrup, in class
"Yes."
-an anonymous student

Mr. Davidson and Mrs. Sandeen are discussing English, while Mr. Shafer appears fascinated by a replica of James Brown.

Kara and Kena are crazy for Arthur Miller.

Foreign Language

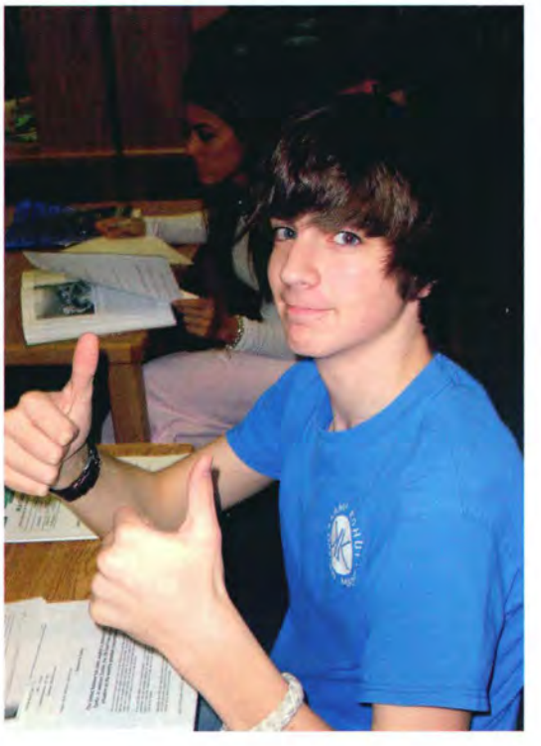
"Latin is life!"
-Marla Tyler

"Foreign languages are awesome because speaking English all the time can get pretty boring! Plus you can learn to say some crazy phrase that you can randomly use, and no one will know what you're talking about."
-Christina Gordon

"I love Spanish--no reason why--and I hope to go to Spain someday!"
-Emily O'Leary

"Me encanto Español porque quiero viajar en el futuro!"
-Shannon Fee

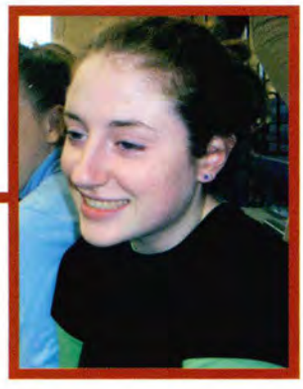
"I like teaching French because it's a beautiful language, with rich literature and culture."
-Mme. Shustorovich



"Spanish is my way of connecting with the world. Without it I would be lost."
-Keith Tripler

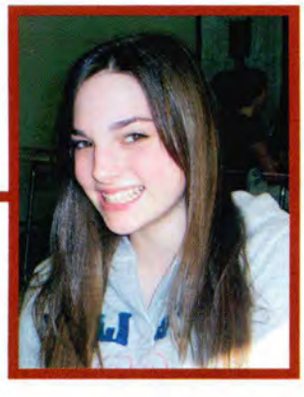
Cultures

Numbers

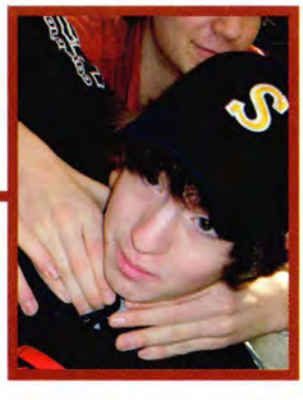


"Precalc is my favorite subject because I'm good at it!"
-Katie Hinman

"Math is challenging but if you have a good teacher, it can make all the difference."
-Jack Kerouac



"I like math because Ms. Maine is a little nuts but I love her!"
-Kara Featherstone



"Math has really long tests and way too much homework!"
- Josh Spampinato

Math

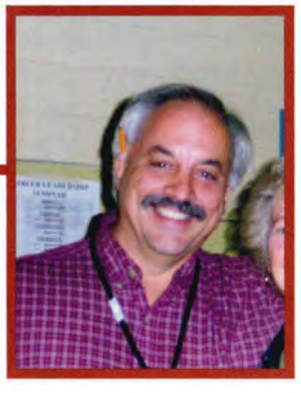
"I've taught Algebra, Trigonometry, and Statistics, and I love seeing how all things connect. The upper and lower levels of math all fit together. My favorite topic is logic analysis."
-Mr. Cerbone

"I love math and when I was in high school I told my math teacher that I was going to be a math teacher too. My first teaching job was with her!"
-Mrs. Maine

Music

"Music is the one time of day that I get to relax and have fun."
-Maia Woluchem

"Music cleanses the soul."
-Katie Larson



"I love teaching and interacting with students and developing their twisted minds."
-Mr. Indiano

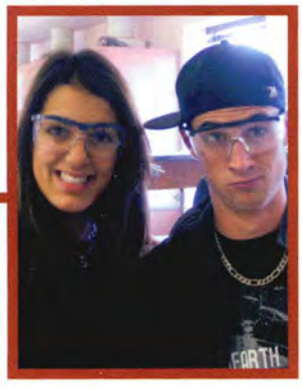
"I will not talk and not band."
-Bethany Kwarta

"If music was a cookie...I'd eat it."
-David Reuss

"I got into teaching music because I was inspired by my own high school teachers. I like teaching music because I get to know the kids over four years, which not a lot of teachers get to do."
-Mr. Shemancik

Notes

Atoms



The coolest thing about chemistry is wearing the cool glasses.

"Rocks are the best because the earth is all around us so why not learn about our surroundings."
-Mrs. Walker

"I love Bio. It's so interesting, but I can't really put into words why--my teacher's great."
-Kat Lynch

"I love teaching genetics. It is the building blocks of life--what's not to love?"
-Mr. Buckert

Do you know where your metacarpals are? Maybe you should take anatomy next year.

"Earth Science is like the sun, slowly rising into the sky until it covers everyone with happiness."
-Rick Markowitz

Physical Education and Health

"Gym is fun except for all the sophomores who take it too seriously."
-Andrew Craigie

"Health is interesting and I like that it's not like the 'normal' school!"
-Carlo Seinn

"In gym, it is bad luck to drop a fly ball. It is worse to forget your bathing suit."
- Powell Wright

"Health is awesome because it's really easy and relaxed-you get to meditate."
-Sri Damera

Having fun in Mrs. Piccirillo's Health Class.

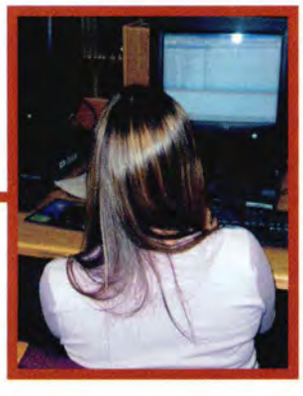
Mrs. Huttleman and Danielle Hunt share a sports moment.

Movement

People

" I really like studying the Cold War--the intrigue on both sides, the buildup of nuclear weapons, and how each side tried to outpower the other without any physical contact."
-Mr. Hellems

"Every decision a student makes should be analyzed in terms of marginal benefits and costs."
-Mr. Larson

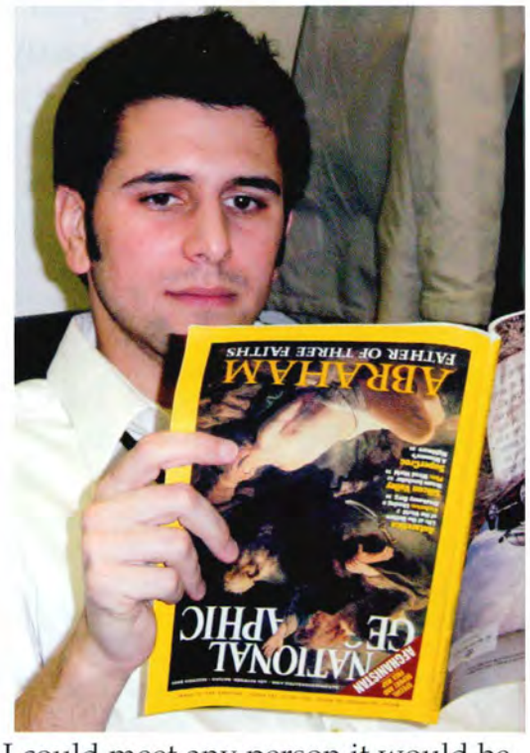


"Global 9 is all about guts and mayhem"
-Ms. Shea

"Gandhi was the man!"
-David Bloom

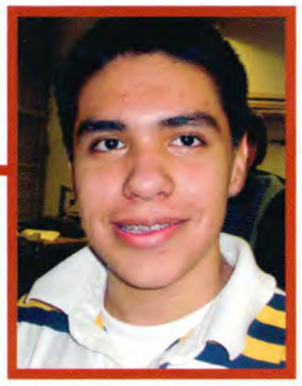
Social Studies

"Everything is tied in some way to cultural diffusion. It is the word the will never die."
-Mr. LeVan



"If I could meet any person it would be Leonardo da Vinci. There's a man who was so far ahead of his time, it's difficult to ever comprehend what he was thinking."
-Mr. Barra.
(And his students probably say the same thing when they don't understand Mr. Barra. Right.)

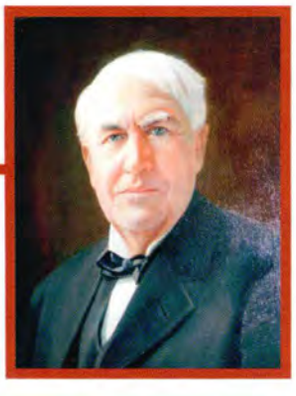
Technology



"Mr. VanDerLinden I need your help!"
-Alfredo Luque

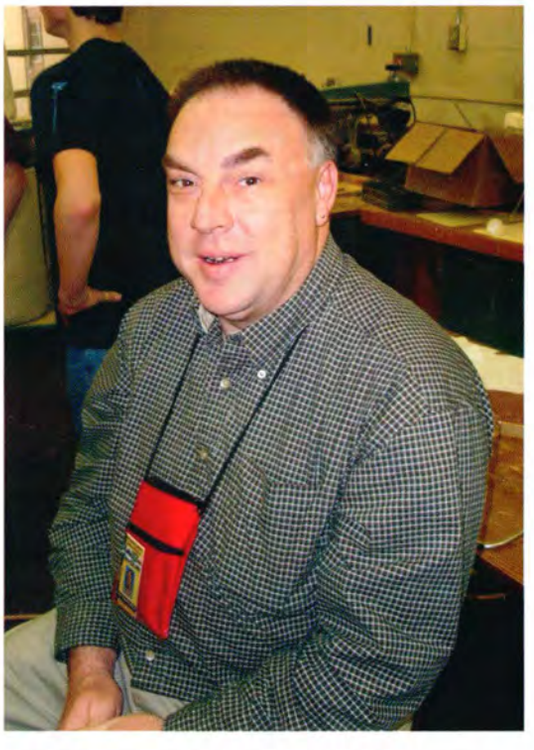
"My favorite class was POE (principles of engineering). We built cars powered by mousetraps--that was pretty cool."
-Tim Glasow

"I like DDP because you can make stuff and I like ripping on Jesse."
-Corey Whitamore



"Genius is one percent inspiration and ninety-nine percent perspiration. Accordingly, a 'genius' is often merely a talented person who has done all of his or her homework."
-Thomas Edison

In technology, students build bridges to their future.



"I like technology because it's always changing, It is exhilaerating."
-Mr. VanDerLinden

May Inboune is one of our night custodians. They work very late.

Mrs. Harriff, the nurse, joined us this year from the middle school.

Mrs. Rothbaum, Mrs. Stein, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Edd, and Mrs. Valente. These resource teachers support students in and out of the classroom. They are all smiles.

Here, Mr. Molinich looks threatening, but really, he's all about the love.

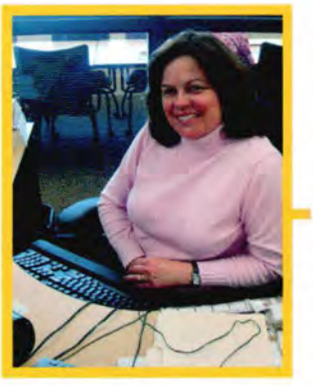
Our cafeteria staff: Sandy Schom, Bonnie Wise, Nancy Tooley, Sunetra Deore, Miriam Schultz, Joe Cahill.

Tell these people thank you next time you see them!

Mrs. Arilotta and Mrs. Perry welcome people to SHS in the main office.

Mrs. Miller - "I love greeting students and setting up appointments for them."

"Good morning, I need to see the following people in my office..."



Mrs. Riecke- "I enjoy working with seniors and hearing that they were accepted to their first choice colleges."

Mrs. Molinich and Mrs. Weld guide us down the right career paths.

Mr. Nally and Mrs. Curtis grading. (They don't look happy.)

Doc LoRe makes sure the students don't blow up the chem lab.

Mrs. Cramer helps a student with an extreme sculpture.

Mitch keeping an eye out for everyone.

HOMECOMING ASSEMBLY

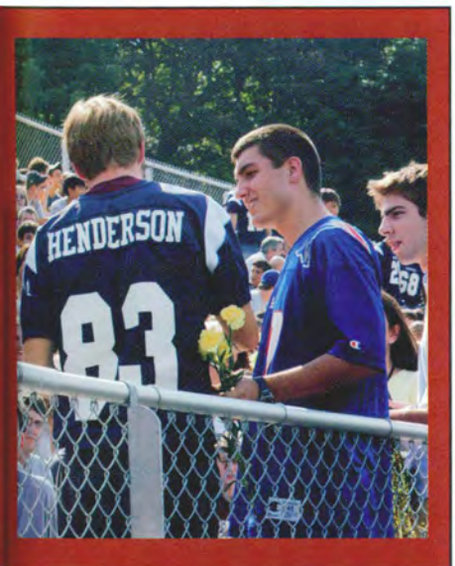
Freshmen

The freshmen got down with their bad selves and danced for their class skit.

Our very own cheerleading team gave quite an acrobatic show this year at homecoming to much applause.

Juniors

Four brave junior girls showed us their dancing skill during their skit.



After all the skits the fall senior sport awards were given out.

Seniors

Chris Ludden, Sarah Dobrzynski, and Dan Burruto gave a brilliant rendition of "It's all coming back to me now."

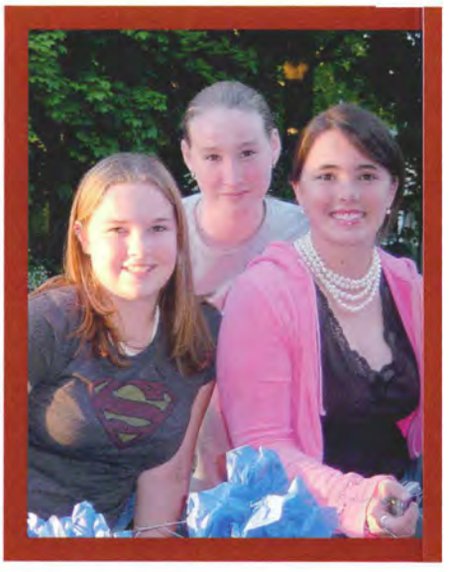
The Senior class broke out into song during the senior skit for a very moving performance.

Floatbuilding

Each year in early fall, one of Sutherland's longest standing traditions begins: Floatbuilding! From the tissue paper to the spray paint, floatibuilding is one of the most anticipated events of the year. It's a time when classmates can get together and work towards a common goal while simply enjoying themselves. Every year there is a different theme and all four classes must incorporate it in the float while competing against the other classes for best design and overall appearance.

Watch out world, here comes Sutherland, the "Brand New Knight." This year's theme pushed students to a whole new level. The Freshemen created an Extreme Makeover for the knight, complete with a bathtub and new clothes. Two dueling babies made up the Sophomores' float. The Junior float featured a knight crossing a bridge from the old to the new. Construction is something Sutherland students can definitely relate to. Therefore, it's a no-brainer why so many people like the Senior float portraying the Knight on scaffolding doing his part to make our school a better place.

It was an incredible journey that for some classes began even before school started but Sutherland floatbuilding once again proved successful. Don't forget to participate next year--it's well worth it! To the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors returning next year, Good Luck!



Fiona Adams describes the Senioritis that hits our upperclassmen eve during floatbuilding... was an okay idea [but] was the same people every night [and] it we were down to the wire.

"People put in a lot of effort [and] I liked the idea," -Becky Byrnes, Junior
"More class participation," -Kyle Blum

"Our float was small but it turned out well considering how many people showed; more class participation would be nice," -Emily Hessney, Sophomore

"Our class worked effectively and efficiently," -Chris Chambers, Junior

"Floatbuilding is a lot of fun and a great way to meet new people," -Maia Woluchem and Rachel Gartland, Freshmen

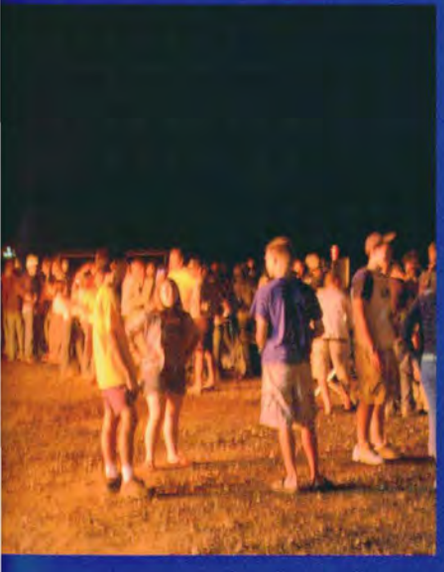
The bonfire. Another homecoming tradition. Though the juniors and seniors were dismayed that there was no powderpuff game, at least we kept this tradition. It's just a time for seniors to gather, talk, and enjoy themselves.



We didn't start the FIRE!

Nor did we get to put it out. For some reason they think that should be the fire department's job. Though, to everyone's surprise, this firefighter fell in.

Senior class queen Abaneh and friends Harmony, Peggy, and Trevin enjoy themselves by the fire.

Homecoming Dance

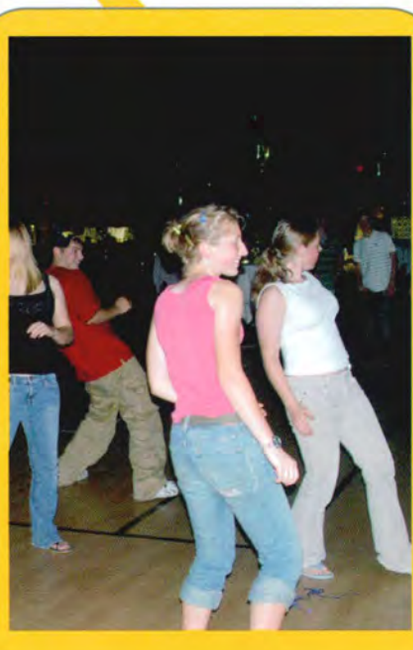
Dances. Aren't they great? You go, expecting to dance to great music, dance with friends, and just have fun all together. Right? But what fun is a dance when people stand around and everything is awkward for about the first hour? It's not very exciting, but then as everyone starts showing up, it gets a whole lot more fun. You try to talk over the loud music and everyone else talking, but it just doesn't seem to work. So, you go out of the gym floor to where you are greeted by the many CapriSun juice boxes waiting to be opened. If anything goes wrong, which it usually doesn't, Mrs. Harriff is there to bring your spirits up. The dance off is another thing that students look forward to, watching students show off their amazing dance moves. Towards the end of the night, all the "dancers" come together to dance to the Electric Slide. So, next time you want to show off your moves, come to the dance and have a great time!

I see the light! I feel the music. Alas, no one has arrived yet.

The refreshing taste of CapriSun fills one's thirst and replenishes their need to dance.

Laura, Romana, Eric, Carlie, and Harmony felt cool standing in front of the huge fan and posing at the same time.

Harmony Hostick show the other students at the dance what she's made of. You go girl!



The Electric Slide has never looked so fun! These students sure know how to dance.

Sutherland Style

Sutherland can't seem to veer away from Vera Bradley.

These shoes which previously sold only at Home Depot for gardening purposes became quite a fashion statement this year.

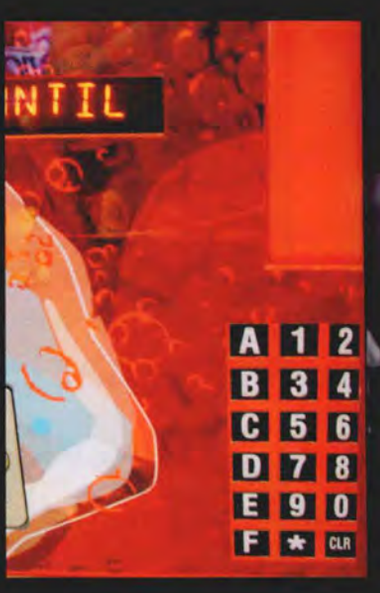
I dare you to look this cute!!

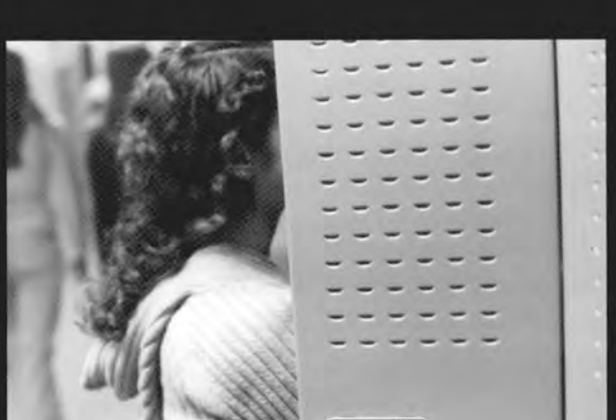
Team spirit is a vital part of Sutherland Style. Students get ready for the game with a variety of psychs.

The Ugg boots became even more prevalent this year than last year. These boots were made for sellin'.

The popped collar. 'Nuff said.

A day in the life of Sutherland Brought to you by Sutherland photography students.





COMPOSERS

You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown

Brian and Kathleen

This year's fall play was You're a Good Man Charlie Brown. Since it requires few chacters, there were two seperate casts that performed. The leads in the play for the performance pictured here were Michael Leess, Brian Kecskemety, Sara Lynn Ianni, Andrew Kay, Stephen Keeley, and Kathleen Burke. The other set of leads were Kyle Jozefski, Lucas Syed, Ela Dugan, Jake Messina, Sean Hingel, and Danielle Hunt. The rest of the Peanuts Gang included Kathryn Miller, Jackie Moe, Devin O'Connell, Jonathan Peartree, Jenn Power, Mary Ragus, Charlie Shaddock, and Rebecca Stein.

Audience Reflections on the show...

"Sean Hingel made me forget that he was an actor and not a dog."

"Phenomenal!"

"Lucas, who played Charlie, demonstrated how many children interpret situations, often with little hope."

"I was thoroughly impressed by the acting and talent."

"Everyone in the play had exceptional voices."

"A lovable theme and hilarious acting."

"Kathleen Burke captured the essence of Lucy...simply unforgettable."

Superfans

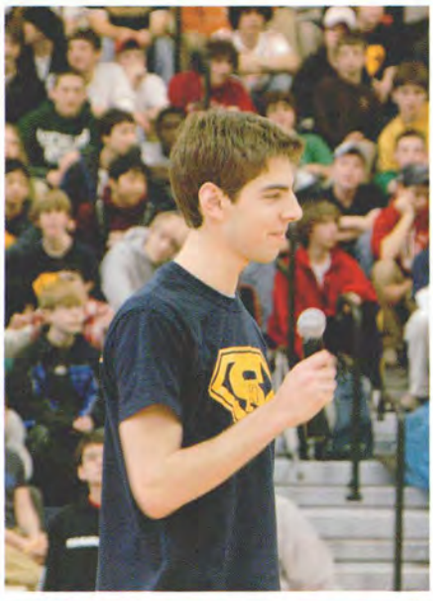
04-05

05-06

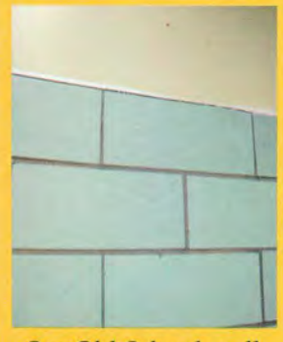
The superfan tradition has grown by leaps and bounds over the past few years. The ocean of blue and gold that floods basketball games, pep rallies, and other sporting events is something we can be proud of. As we say goodbye to an enthusiastic group of seniors (sometimes overly enthusiastic, if that's possible), we can be sure there are future superfans waiting to fill the ranks. Start thinking of your shirt's nickname for next year!

Winter Pep Rally



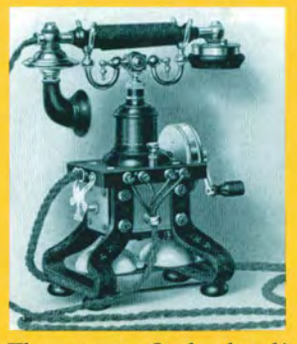
The Winter Pep Rally was extremely fun because during the teacher vs. student mock basketball game, the teachers beat the students by a landslide. Both girls and boys basketball teams displayed exellent effort and the cheerleaders did a lovely routine too.

Are You Old School or New School?



Our Old School wall was gradually replaced.

These New School tiles made each hall approximately 1/2" narrower.



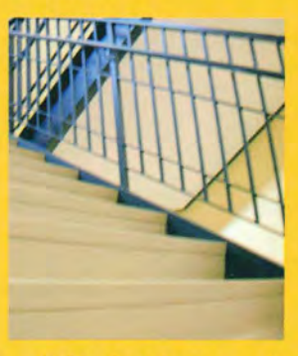
These were Sutherland's phones last year.

This year our school got a state-of-the-art phone system.

Classic old water fountains

Exciting new water fountains

Our Old School stairs were dreary and gray.



Our New School stairs are colorful (and up to the latest fire code).

Beethoven's mad Old School.

Kanye: definitely New School. He was everywhere this year.

Here's us schooling Eastridge in the old gym last year.

Mr. Snyder has taught here longer than anyone: that's Old School.

Mr. Tuzzolino is an example of New School. Welcome.

This front entrance is Old School. We miss it.

The New School front entrance. We'll grow to love it.

Cell Phones

Seven hours doesn't seem like a very long time, but when you're forced to spend that long without your cell phone it seems like an eternity. The school has cracked down on cell phone use. Here are some of your thoughts:

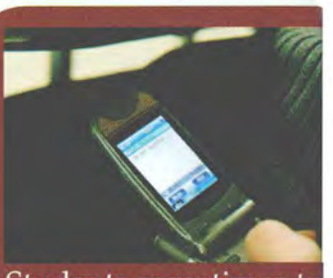
"The cell phone policy is too strict. We should be able to use them during free periods like Mendon" -Jillian Braine, Jen Kamish, and Erin Wong

"I like the policy but don't obey it." -Carlie Fishgold

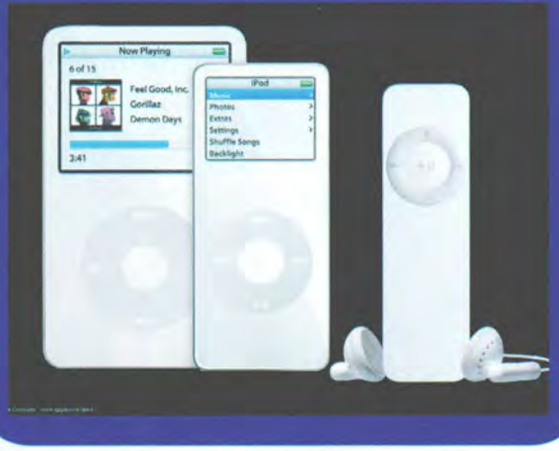
"The policy isn't reasonable. Kids need to call their parents at lunch, on free periods, outside." -Kelly Chuang, Lauren Schultz, Yelena Slobard

"I don't really care about the cell phone policy" -Conor Phelan

It's a good thing it's after 2:21.



Students sometimes try to text during class.



There's something about those little white earbuds that are attracting people to iPods, right and left. First it was records and 8-tracks. After that it was cassettes then CDs, and now we have reached the of iPods. Many Sutherland students have taken a liking to these pop cultures symbols and have vary ing ideas about them. Indeed, this year, they are omnipresent.

Dan Petracca originated many ideas and directed the camera work.

Abaneh Ebangwese anchored with poise and humor.

The Knightly News has been operating now for a couple of years. This year the team really made the most of their productions, with creative stories, skillful camera work, innovative ideas, and in-depth reporting

The Knightly News aired its stories during the lunch periods, entertaining an entire cafeteria of students. With the advice of Mr. Brady, the productions had a professional flair.

Some of the highlights from the year include an opinion survey regarding the use of cell phones, a brief soap opera in German, and commercials advertising activities like the track team and the chess team. Tim Quinn was great in that track commercial. The chess commercial was just intense.

Katherine Gage worked as a field reporter.

Students in the hallways give input to Andrew Citarella.

Chelsea McNamara worked in post-production.

Katherine Moon interviews Jenn Power about the fall play.

We look forward to seeing what the Knightly News team creates next year!

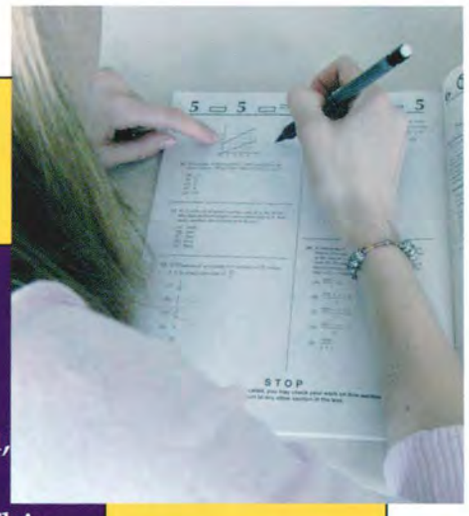
The College Quest



Step 1: The Search

Most sophomores don't concern themselves with colleges, but the most prudent begin the search early. Your counselor replaces your best friend.

Step 2: The Test

When juniors get quiet all of a sudden, you know they're studying for SATs. This year, the new writing section drew discontented groans from all.

Step 4: The Wait

Now comes the hardest part: awaiting the results. Will you get into the school of your dreams, or are your aspirations to be crushed forever? It's out of your hands now.

Step 3: The Paperwork

Everyone's favorite task: filling out application forms! Seniors buckle down to write their extracurricular activities half a dozen times, plus those dreaded essays. Fun!

Step 5: The Verdict

Seniors everywhere begin to fear white envelopes. Some are greeted with cheers, others with tears.

Step 6: The Parting

Whether you're off to CalTech or staying for RIT, heartfelt goodbyes mark the departure into a new world. College, here we come!

Where Are You Going?

Al McKnight

"I think I'd like to go to Fredonia--the school's pretty cool. I'd like to study graphic design or advertising."

Jason Kammerdiener

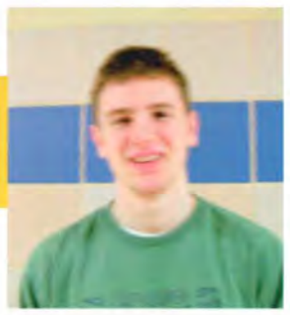
"I think I'd like to go to Hobart for Education or History."

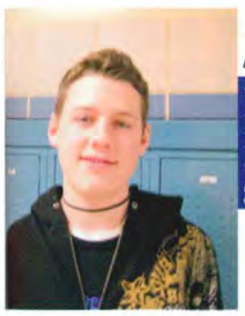
Shana Terho

"I'm going to Smith College, and I want to be an English teacher, actually. It's Ms. Gordon's fault. Don't tell her."

David Ploof

"I'm going to the University of Conneticut to play baseball. I'm not sure what I'll study--probably something in science."





Andrew Stefanich

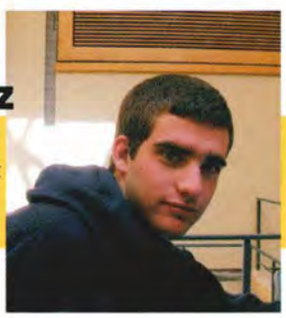
"I'm going to the University of Florida next year. I'll study Pre-Med, but I'm actually going for the weather."

Keith Dye

"I'm not sure where I'm going yet, but Case Western is a nice school. I've heard lots of good things about it. Don't know what I'll study yet, either."

Stefan Schwartz

"I'd like to study astrophysics and explore the world. I don't know where I'm going yet. Maybe UofR or Vassar."



Tim Burdick

"I think I'd like to go to Western New England. I like the campus--it seems like a nice, small school."

Hailey Weniger

"I am going to Rutgers University and I am going to swim division 1 with a swimming scholarship."

Johanna Bond

"I am looking to major in English and minor in music at U of R, Swarthmore, or Williams. I am planning on playing Division III volleyball and continuing my studies with the harp."

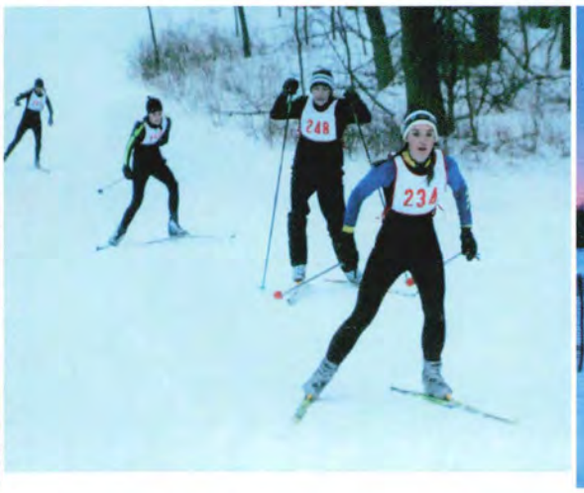
"The snow gods were horrible to us. We had no snow in January. Other than that it was a good season."
-Rebecca Byrnes

"Wearing spandex is awesome. Bryans is my fantasy so you should do skiing next year. Let's kick HFL's butt."
-Rachel D'Angio



Girls Swimming

"We beat Fairport so that was good. Everyone did well but Jenna got her appendix out. That wasn't good.We're undefeated since 2001!"
-Eliza Massie

"We are number one in the state since 2002! This year we broke our own record in being the number one team in NYS history!"
-Lindsay Wahl

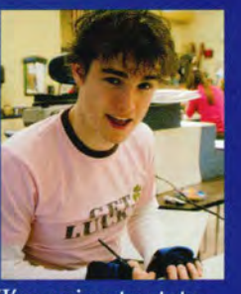
"We've won the Sectional Title four years in a row now, but our team is still young. We're hoping for a dynasty."
-Kenny Pink



"I'm going to state qualifiers. The whole dive section is proud of me and I'm proud of them for what they've accomplished this past year... I feel they're going to stay #1 for a long time."
-Sean Hingel

Despite critics' claims that the Pittsford Boys Swim Team had graduated too much talent, the boys still claimed their fourth straight Section V title, continuing their record streak of titles. With strong performances by stars such as Sean Hingel, Dan Locke, Andrew Kuter, Kenny Pink, and Charlie Ruff, the team ruled the pool all season. The boys qualified all three of their relays for the New York State Championships, taking a bronze medal in the 200 yard Medley Relay with Ben Silverstein, Kenny Pink, Sean McManus, and Andrew Kuter. With such a strong, young core to the team, the Pittsford Boys should be a powerhouse for years to come.

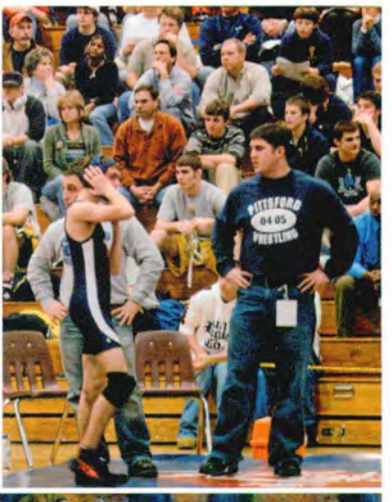
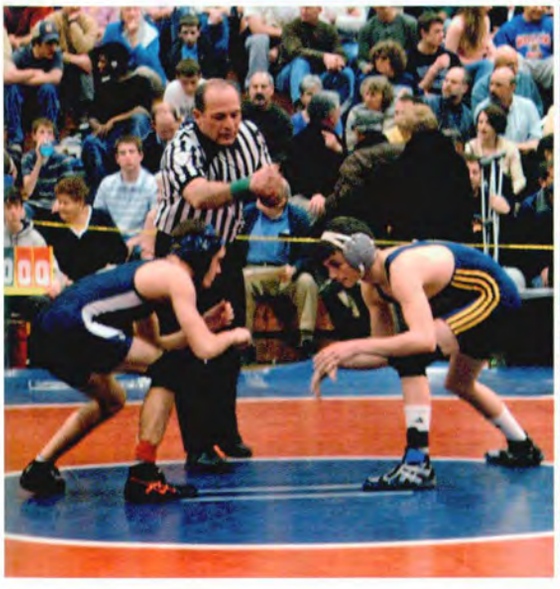
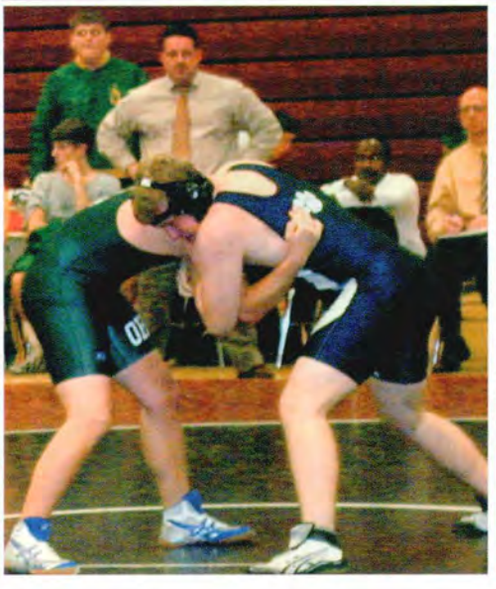
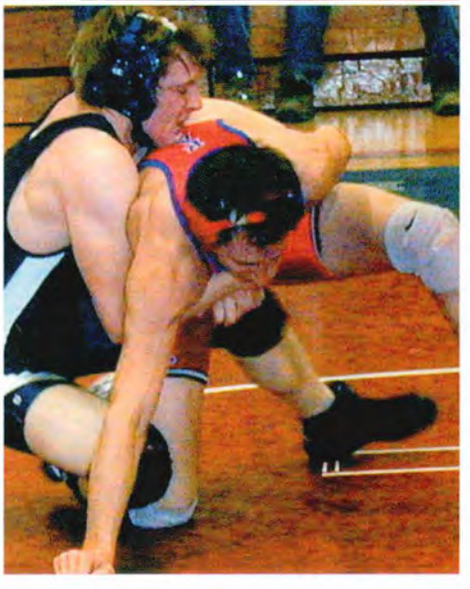
"More enduringly than any other sport, wrestling teaches self-control and pride. Some have wrestled without great skill; none have wrestled without pride."
-Corey Borshoff, quoting 4 time national wrestling champion Dan Gable

"Other than having the coolest uniforms in the school, we also had a good year. Good luck wrestling at American U, Kyle."
-Chris Henderson









Boys Basketball

"This was just a great year--I can't really find words for it. Best of luck to the team next year."
-Jon Gibbs

"I can't put my thoughts into words either, Jon. I'll just school the opposition with this layup."
-Jason Corletta

"We bounced back from a tough season. Last year we had a great six-win streak, proving we could play well as a team. We're losing a lot of seniors this year, but we've got a lot of good juniors and sophomores."
-Adam Witzel

" 'A life dedicated to Hockey is time well spent.'"
-Ben Waldman, quoting Sidney Crosby

Girls Volleyball

"We were the first team to use the new gym, and our team motto was 'if you had fun, you won.' Our coach was amazing and the leadership of the upperclassmen got us pumped up."
-Annie and Anna

"This season was a lot of fun and the coaches were amazing. It's really frustrating that volleyball is moving to the fall next year."

What is your favorite time of day?

"Gym class."

"That time when I'm about to wake up but just before I remember it's a school day."

"2:21 p.m."

"I like labs a lot. They're more fun then just sitting in class."

"Free periods, free periods, free periods."

"After school, because I can do whatever I want."

"Late at night. I can sit in my room and IM."

"Anytime spent with friends."

The Scoop on Swoop

This is the first year that Sutherland has had an outside security agency working for us. So we asked one of the Swoop security guards what they thought of working at Sutherland.

What is the best thing about your job?
Being around a positive atmosphere and making sure that everyone is in good hands.
What is the weirdest thing about Sutherland?
Being arond Mitch.
What is the most interesting thing that you have witnessed or has happened to you while you were here?
Letting kids out for lunch.

What is your most memorable sports moment?

"I was skiing freestyle and I went on the box for the first time but I was too slow so two guys went after me but I was still on it and some other dumb people went down it and soon there were six people on top of me and I couldn't get up."

Coke or Pepsi?

"Pepsi because the blue can is more uplifting than the red. The blue is more refreshing and subtle and it says 'come drink me I will quench your thirst but not control you.'"
-Jackie Moe

"Coke because the flavor is much fresher and crisper and it's a great combination with lemon or lime. Plus Cherry Coke is better than Cherry Pepsi and you can make Coke floats but Pepsi floats are just wrong."
-Abby Taylor

"I'm a Pepsi man. I like the crispness. Coke is too syrupy."
-Nick Berry

"I'm a coke fan. It's a classic--it's been around forever. It tastes the same as it did back in the day."

Dear Class of 2006,

We've all endured the tests, noises of construction, and personal hardships that arose over the past four years. But what do we have to show for our triumph over these daily battles? The diploma might be the first tangible thing that comes to mind, but one of the greatest badges you wear is the friends that stand by your side before and hopefully long after graduation. Sure, you might slowly lose track of the events during the Shang dynasty and the integrals from calculus may become hazy, but you've made friends that already have and will continue to affect you for the rest of your life. Be it your best friend who was there for you when you were feeling down, the person whom you dated or the teacher who was always there with the willingness to take time and listen, all of these people have become part of us.

When we started as freshmen, we were all wide-eyed and new to the school and the whole high school experience. However, over these past four years, we have all grown and learned, changing from impressionable kids into mature adults (although I'm sure the faculty is willing to argue the latter). Nevertheless, we are more informed as we leave Sutherland than we were when we began, no matter whether this information came from classes or life experiences. As you go out into the world, take what you have learned with you and think for yourself as you continue on to bigger and greater things. Use what you have learned in the classrooms and hallways to formulate your own opinion and then harness the true Superfan in you to make sure your opinion is heard. If all else fails, you will always have the friendships you made to fall back on.

Best wishes,
Greg Ferris

Editor's Note:

Editor-in-Chief
Photographer

Jon Cummings

31195

My fourth and final yearbook, dang it's been a lot of work! I started off taking pictures near the beginning of my freshman year which I have been doing ever since. My junior year Mr. Gunter promoted me to editor-in-chief which I took and helped make nearly every page of the book which I have also done on this book. It's been a privilege to have made these books and I shall miss it as I go off to R.I.T. to go to the next step into photography. I would like to thank Mrs. Black for being the one who signed me on as the yearbook photographer, and to Mr. Gunter for working with me to finish these books and putting in major hours. I also need to thank Chelsea, Jackie, Kelly, and Bridget for helping me to complete this task and dealing with the slowness of the computers. Of course the most important people are the ones that let me take their pictures over the years and supported the yearbook and my work.
~ Thank you ~

Memorable Moments: "Why are you sniffing that phone?", "Where is the ladder? The what? The ladder. How should I know?", "You have to use your imagination--this will be a yearbook office someday.", "Wow, it took five minutes to upload eight pictures....", "Why aren't the lights working? Why don't we have a ceiling?", "This is the good computer, that is the bad computer, and that one is the disappointing one.", "Jon, I can't read your handwriting again.", "How do you spell that person's name?", "Is that person an 8th grader?", "Does anyone know who this is?", "Why are those pictures colored funny?", "They look like zombies.", "How do you spell 'Ebangwese'?", "This couldn't possibly offend anyone. Yes it could.", "We need pictures!!!", "I got to make my first dot!", "Why is there a border around this picture?", "The Red Hot Chili Peppers want to advertise in our yearbook?", "Rounded corners or no rounded corners...that is the question." (We went with rounded corners), "Deadlines? Umm, yeah, those are long gone.", "Jon and I just rip on each other's pages.", "Owned."
